

President's Message

Dear Reader, the CCGS has reached a milestone, with the recognition that this is the year of the 20th anniversary of our founding.

It goes without saying that a lot has changed in the last 20 years, especially in Genealogy. It's safe to say that computers and the Internet have in many ways revolutionized the ease of entry into our hobby. It is now common for family history researchers to collaborate with many folks whom they may never meet in person, in near real-time, by way of email and video conferencing. Powerful search engines and vast databases have allowed access to amazing amounts of information about our ancestors. The trends all lead to an increase in the amount of freely-available genealogical information and useful tools needed to sift it.

By many measures, the Calhoun County Genealogical Society has benefited from the information revolution. We now have many out-of-state members who have found us by way of our website. And likewise, many of our members provide services in the spirit of the genealogical community by volunteering on the public mailing lists and by posting their own information websites.

But there are concerns that I have about our future amidst all of this change. At a time where it is ridiculously easy to be connected to our Society and know the schedule of our meetings, I ask "Where are all the new members?" As the demand for our traditional printed publications fall, how will we sell digital materials? Our revenue streams have been in decline and we must consider how to maintain our business model if we hope to have another 20 years ahead of us. To me it is clear the best way to address these many concerns is by the involvement of our membership.

Genealogy is one of the largest hobbies in the US, but I am afraid that the computerized version of the hobby has allowed people to rely on online sources as their only means to grow. To me it is a no-brainer that the pursuit of knowledge is much more rewarding when it is conducted with our peers. This was perfectly evident at our January 22nd sharing meeting. Although our turnout was severely limited by the weather, the brave few of us who made it had a very enjoyable time.

So please, during this 20th anniversary year of the CCGS, continue to participate in our meeting. I encourage you to further your love for genealogy by sharing it with a guest or two by bringing them along as well. And as always, we are looking for a few good volunteers on our many committees and the Board.

Thanks—
Chris Rau
President, CCGS

NEWSLETTER FOCUS—CCGS MEMBERSHIP

It's all about YOU!

Whether you are a Professional Genealogist, Family Historian or just a Hobbyist you have found and joined CCGS. This issue lists our membership and the surnames they are researching or at least the ones they listed for CCGS.

My take of CCGS is it's all about the sharing. That's why I joined. I need to know others interested. The big bad Internet has opened up communications a lot but it's not the only avenue out there.

I know we haven't all physically met. I live a couple of hours away and can't make every meeting and I know some of you live even farther away.

SO, this issue lists your/our fellow members and their surname interests. Maybe we can make a connection and continue the sharing.

I've done it in the past and it does work! TRY IT!
